The Batterie Fragile was conceived by YVES CHAUDOUËT, made out of porcelain under the expertise of MARJORIE THEBAULT, at the Ecole supérieure d'art des Pyrénées, Pau-Tarbes in 2016.

The Batterie Fragile is part of FRAC Aquitaine Collection, Bordeaux.

Cover : Baleine + Biplan by Yves Chaudouët, monotype, 6 x 9 cm, typographic ink on paper, courtesy Wasserstein Collection, NYC.

Recorded live at le Musée des beaux-arts de Tours on march 15th, 2017 during Super Flux festival co-organised by le Temps Machine and le Petit Fauchoux .

On March 2017, on the occasion of the Festival Super Flux (Tours, FR), co-organised by Le Temps Machine and Le Petit Fauchoux, Yves Chaudouët has been invited to exhibit his Batterie Fragile, a drum kit made out of porcelain, in the museum des Beaux Arts de Tours while Valentina Magaletti, drummer for the duet Tomaga, has been invited for a gig of said band in le Petit Fauchoux.

There must have been a meeting between Valentina and the Batterie fragile...
